The disbursements on Schedule B, line 21b, to the SEIU General Fund were made to reimburse the committee's connected organization for political program support grants to SEIU state councils and local unions. These grants will not be used for any federal candidate or committee contributions. In addition, the committee transferred funds to its connected organization to correct several misdeposits inadvertently made in December. On the $140.45 transfer from 12/3/2017, the local collecting agent incorrectly made the check out to the federal PAC instead of the connected organization. The check was originally received on 11/8/2017 and was included on line 11a ii of the 12/20 monthly filing. On the $90.25 transfer from 12/5/2017, the transmittal form that accompanied the contribution was completed incorrectly by the local collecting agent, which resulted in the misdeposit. The check was originally received on 11/29/2017 and was included on line 11a ii of the 12/20 monthly filing. On the $222.10 transfer from 12/27/2017, the check was inadvertently deposited into the federal PAC instead of the connected organization's account. The check was originally received on 12/21/2017 and is included on line 11a ii of this filing. On the $324 transfer from 12/27 the check was made out to SEIU and the memo line said 2017 COPE and it wasn't discovered until after the check was deposited that it contained non-qualifying COPE funds. The original check was received on 12/20/2017 and is included in line 11a ii of this filing. Finally, 6051.87 was transferred on 12/27 to the connected organization because a portion of the contribution check contained stale funds. There was no contribution detail or back-up provided by the collecting agent, which made it difficult to discern which portion of the contribution was stale and what portion could remain in the federal PAC account. To be cautious, the committee transferred the entire amount to the connected organization. The original contribution was received on 12/15/17 and is included on line 11a ii of this filing. If you have any further questions regarding the misdeposits, please feel free to contact the committee.
