I am submitting this Form 99 to explain the delay in filing my Form 1 (Statement of Organization).

The delay was due to complications in establishing an FEC-compliant campaign bank account. Despite multiple attempts, staff at Bank of America were unfamiliar with the specific requirements for opening a federally regulated campaign committee account. I had to return to the branch several times to resolve issues related to insufficient documentation, improper account setup, and delays in upper management approval.

Each time, I was informed that additional or different documentation was required, often after previously being told the account was ready. These back-and-forth delays significantly impacted my ability to submit Form 1 on time, as FEC regulations require an active, properly designated account to finalize the committees registration.

I am now in compliance and have taken all necessary steps to ensure timely filings moving forward. I sincerely appreciate your understanding and thank you for your guidance and oversight.

Respectfully,
Jonathan Bonner
