A diagram of a rectangular frame structure. It consists of two horizontal beams at the top and bottom, connected by ten vertical supports. The top beam has a small square support at each end and a small circle support at each of the eight intermediate vertical support locations. The bottom beam has a small square support at each end and a small circle support at each of the eight intermediate vertical support locations. The vertical supports are represented by small squares at the ends and small circles in the middle.
