Federal Election Commission

Washington, D.C. 20463

To Whom It May Concern:

On November 23, 1999, I will be announcing that I'm "taking the next step" in running for Congress in the State of Washington's 5th Congressional District.

I've received a packet of information from your office and I'm not sure that I must complete the Statement of Candidacy at this time because I'm just starting to try and raise money for the campaign. If I'm reading the material correctly, I do not send in the Statement of Candidacy until I reach the $5,000 limit.

To avoid taking any chances of not doing the right thing, I'm sending in the Statement of Candidacy. I'm also sending in the Statement of Organization for the same reason.

I hope that this is not disruptive for you but if I had to error, I wanted to error on the side of doing more than I needed to do at this time.

Sincerely,

WAYNE BROKAW
