Dear Mr. Dobi,

The Good For Congress campaign is in receipt of the Request For Additional Information dated November 17, 2022 regarding the campaign's October Quarterly FEC report. Please accept this response and the campaign's amended July Quarterly and October Quarterly FEC reports as our response to your letter.

For item #1, the campaign confirmed that the entity Hawthorne Farms was a partnership and the partnership confirmed how the contribution should be attributed. The campaign has amended their October Quarterly FEC report to reflect this information.

For item #2, you indicate that the campaign made excessive contributions to Yesli Vega For Virginia with two contributions of $2,000 each on 6/2/2022 and 9/13/2022 designated for the General 2022 election. Please note that the first contribution was incorrectly designated for the General 2022 and should have been designated for the Primary 2022. The Primary election in connection with this contribution was held on 6/21/2022. The campaign has amended their 2022 July Quarterly FEC report to reflect the correct designation.

For item #3, after several attempts, the campaign was unable to verify the tax status and attribution information for the contribution from Parker Reynolds LLC. The contribution was refunded on 12/15/2022 and the refund will be reflected on the campaign's Year-End FEC report.

For item #4, you inquire as to whether the donors in question received sufficient permissible funds to make the contributions to the campaign. The campaign has confirmed that each of the organizations listed in your letter received sufficient permissible funds to make the contributions to the campaign.

The PAC trusts that this response sufficiently responds to your request.

Sincerely,
David Dolan
Treasurer,
Good For Congress
