Dear Mr. Norfleet:

In response to your letter dated February 27, 2009 requesting additional information:

All administrative expenses incurred by, or on behalf of (i.e., in-kind), ROSKAM PAC have been fully disclosed when and as required, including itemization of those payments to a person aggregating in excess of $200 in a calendar year.

Administrative expenses incurred by or on behalf of the committee including, but not limited to, rent, utilities, salaries, telephone service, office equipment and supplies, have been fully disclosed as required by the Act. Various types of administrative expenses not itemized have either not been incurred or have not aggregated more than $200 in a calendar year. There are no debts owed by the committee that required disclosure.

Activity on behalf of the PAC consists primarily of volunteer time. The PAC has no office location or continuous telephone service.

Please note that this information also applies to the 2009-2010 election cycle also.

Sincerely,

Nancy H. Watkins, C.P.A.
Treasurer
