Summary of Debit Card Transaction

This special schedule is provided because debit cards (unlike credit cards) do not have a one-to-one correspondence between the payments and purchases occurring within a particular month. Currently, the FEC does not have detailed or specialized reporting requirements for debit card accounts. Technical advice from the agency recommended reporting only the disbursements to Mastercard. This has been achieved in amended filings dated April 15, 1993 and subsequently. In an abundance of caution, however, the Braun for Senate Campaign Committee has also observed the FEC reporting requirements for conventional credit cards. The Campaign has (a) summarized all payments to Mastercard, and (b) itemized, as a memorandum itemization or "memo entry", all specific settled transactions charges against the debit card in a summary format. As such, the Campaign has exceeded the current FEC reporting requirements relative to the debit card transactions.

The payments to Mastercard-Amalgamated Bank by the Carol Moseley Braun Committee are not for conventional credit cards, but rather are in the nature of debit cards. Debit cards are deemed to be a much more "prudent and conservative means to avoid debt(1)."

Each debit card is secured and activated by an amount placed with Amalgamated Bank. By making advance payments for authorization to use the Mastercard debit card, the Braun Campaign is able to establish a record of how each dollar is utilized on the Mastercard account, while avoiding credit risks to the Campaign. In contrast, if the Campaign were to utilize credit cards or cash advances, there would be less control, more risks and possibly fewer records.

This schedule, presented and submitted separately and in relation to the December 31, 1992 amended filing, provides a reconciliation of payments and purchases.

Initial Amounts To Activate Cards	$	10,000.00
Total Advance Payments and Billing Payments To Mastercard		77,903.07
Total Amounts to Mastercard	$	87,903.07
Less Net Purchases Billed in 1992 by Mastercard		69,588.35
Amount Exceeding Purchases	$	18,314.72
