Friends of Mark Warner (the “Committee”) submits this letter in response to your letter dated August 1, 2024.

Regarding items 1 and 2, the Committee confirms that it will provide additional information as it becomes available. The Committee has retained an accounting firm that is conducting a forensic audit to determine the information necessary to make any required amendments. The Committee will share the conclusions of the report with the Commission when complete.

The Committee will continue working with Commission personnel in the Reports Analysis Division to make any necessary amendments and disclosures. The Committee has been in contact with the Office of the General Counsel and plans to submit sua sponte filings to that office shortly.
