Re: Closed accounts

I ran for Congress in 2000 in the 4th Congressional District. I was defeated in a September Democratic Primary. I closed my campaign account with the filing of our last report with you. I got a letter saying the report was filed late but my treasurer at the time took it directly to the post office and watched them stamp the correct date.

I have taken personal responsibility for all the debts of the campaign. I have made no attempts to raise any funds and the last report you have from us is correct and reflects the final activity of the campaign.

I no longer have a treasurer or a bank account. Please inform me of what else I need to do to stop receiving mailings and notices from the FEC.
