Re: Letter RQ-7 of October 31, 2012

Dear Ms. Pickerall:

Receipt of the referenced letter is acknowledged.

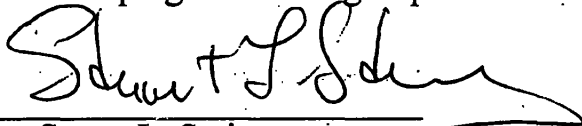

After attempting to file the July, 2012 report electronically and failing, it was filed by mail. Soon thereafter I got a call from someone on staff at the FEC. They explained that if this SuperPAC did not have any activity concerning candidates for federal office, a report is not necessary.

All of the monies collected by this SuperPAC were used in a contested campaign for a seat on the New Mexico Public Regulation Commission. This was reflected on the last report.

I was told that my report mailed to the FEC was going to be returned. It was never recieved.

If the position of the FEC is changed from the one advised in the referenced telephone call, please let me know and whatever is needed to be filed will be done within a reasonable time of such notice.

Yours very truly,
Public Campaign Financing Super PAC
