This amendment is in response to the RFAI dated November 11, 2021. I apologize for not responding sooner; the email from the FEC went into my spam inbox and I was unaware of its delivery. Item #1 of the RFAI letter references the contributions from Catherine Gidlow. Her contributions should have appeared on Line 17; they have been corrected to appear on Line 17 and the text Contribution; IE-Only Account have been added to her contributions. Item #2 of the RFAI letter references the contribution from the Fair and Balanced PAC. The contribution should have appeared on Line 17. It has been corrected to appear on Line 17 and the text Contribution; IE-Only Account has been added to the contribution. Item #2 of the RFAI letter also references the inkind contribution from hey digital LLC. The inkind contribution should have appeared on Line 17. It has been corrected and the text Contribution; IE-Only Account has been added to the inkind contribution. Item #3 of the RFAI letter references the contributions from Jeff Barter. All of Mr. Barter's contributions were donated through ActBlue; as such, he could not have proceeded to the donation page unless he agreed to the contribution rules which state, I am a U.S. Citizen or lawfully admitted permanent resident (i.e. green card holder). Item #4 of the RFAI letter requests clarification of the purpose for the $13,600.00 disbursement to Made By Serge LLC. The purpose has been amended to explain that the vendor provided creative digital design and photography for our website. Item #5 of the RFAI letter questions an 'itemized debt owed to Van Ness Creative Strategies with an outstanding beginning balance of $30,000 not included on our previous reports'. The debt was reported on the Pre General 2020 FEC report as being attributed to 'Facebook'. The debt should have been reported as owed to Van Ness Creative Strategies for Digital Advertising on Facebook. An internal audit of our software indicates that the mistake was found on 12/20/21 and the Facebook record was merged with the Van Ness Creative Strategies record; hence why it does not show up on previous reports as correctly attributed to Van Ness Creative Strategies.
