This is in response to the Commission's Request for Additional Information dated 07/27/2022 regarding the Committee's July Quarterly Report.

In Point 1 regarding an apparently prohibited contribution – the Committee received a contribution from TBA of NJ, LLC (TBA) which is registered as a partnership with the IRS.

Point 2 regarding apparently excessive contributions:

-Daniel Egnor's excessive portion was refunded on 07/08/2022 – within the 60-day requirement.

-Amy Laufer's excessive portion was refunded on 07/15/2022 – within the 60-day requirement.

-The contributions listed from Timothy McCarthy are from two different individuals. Neither of these individuals is excessive.

-The $18,233.28 in-kind contribution from the Democratic Party of Virginia was disclosed to the Committee by the Democratic Party of Virginia in error. The in-kind contribution has been removed from the amended report.

Point 3 regarding Primary contributions received after the 2022 Primary election – the Committee has amended the July Quarterly report to disclose these in-kind contributions as being received for the 2022 General election.

Point 4 regarding contributions received outside the United States – John McCreery contributed and attested that he is a U.S. Citizen or Permanent resident. The Committee's July Quarterly report has been amended to reflect the attestation.

Point 5 regarding contributions received from a political committee not registered with the FEC – the Committee received confirmation from Friends of Jennifer Boysko that funds contributed to the Committee were comprised of federally permissible funds.

Point 6 regarding a contribution received from Jerry Bowman whose amount was incorrectly reported on the Committee's 48-Hour Report – the contribution was partially reattributed to his spouse, Judith Bowman.
